

I really like K-Love on my local station just the way it is. It is a station that I can safely leave on in the car and house and not worry about what my child is going to hear. I really like the way that they have it set up. I don't want there to just be a station like this that is local because then it wouldn't have the same atmosphere that this one has. Thanks